ABOUT THE VCM

Victoria College of Music and Drama, London Ltd, is an independent body providing examinations in Music, Speech, and Drama subjects. It has held examination sessions throughout the British Isles and certain overseas countries since it was founded in 1890. It no longer operates a full-time teaching institution. Further details about Victoria College can be found on our website: www.Vcmexams.com and you can follow us on Twitter and Facebook.

PASS MARKS

Introductory Grades & Grades 1 to 8 65% with Merit, 80%; with Distinction 90% Merit is shown as %Honours+in Ireland Medal examinations, 75% Diplomas, 75% (85% with Honours)

CHANGES TO SYLLABUS

VCM examination requirements do not alter annually, the current syllabus is that listed on our website. Any changes to the syllabus are announced well in advance on the College website, on Facebook and Twitter.

COMPARISONS WITH OTHER EXAMINATION BODIES

VCM Grades 1 to 8 are intended to compare on a level for level basis with the grades 1 to 8 of other similarly recognised examination boards. In addition to Grades 1 to 8, VCM examinations are available at several introductory levels prior to Grade 1 as a means of encouraging beginners, or students with special needs. Medal and Diploma examinations are also available in all subjects. Candidates at all levels receive a written report and, if successful, a certificate or diploma.

WHAT THE EXAMINERS ARE LOOKING FOR

Examiners are looking for a combination of skill, knowledge and understanding. Questions are asked in a manner which assesses the candidate's depth of understanding, not merely the ability to repeat definitions. Ingenuity, variety, musicianship, and a sense of style are rewarded, as well as technical skill and musical accuracy.

EXAMINER TRAINING

All examiners are professionally trained in a number of skills not simply the subject matter. Feedback from centres is gathered routinely as is feedback from examiners about centres; and issues arising are acted upon. For purposes of training and moderating of marking, there will, on occasions, be a second examiner or College representative present in examinations.

OWN COMPOSITIONS Candidates for Grades 1 to 8 may perform their own compositions in lieu of Musicianship Tests. Further guidance is set out in Crazy Composing available from www.vcmpublications.co.uk

REGULATIONS

All entries are accepted on the conditions laid down in General Regulations and Information, a copy of which is available free of charge. It is also on our website: www.vcmexams.com

ENTRY FORMS

All grades and medal examinations can be entered on white entry forms with no more than ten candidates on a page. Please use the code %UK+ in the column headed %subject+and the letter(s) or numbers in the %grade no.+column.

QUESTIONS

Questions are based principally on the music performed; but in addition examiners are at liberty to ask questions on notes, rests, musical terms and signs, key and time-signatures, according to the Grade. Also specifically on minor keys; perfect, major, and minor intervals (Grade 3 upwards).

SIGHT READING

Sight Reading tests are included from Preparatory level upwards. The relative standard will be that of approximately two grades below the grade being taken. Examiners may discuss the Sight Reading Test with candidates as part of the Questions. Specimen Sight Reading Tests are available to purchase from www.vcmpublications.co.uk

SET PIECES

Candidates are required to prepare the specified number of pieces in all examinations. Examiners may stop the candidate at any point or request repeats etc. to be omitted.

London Music Press (LMP) publications are available on-line post free from www.vcmpublications.co.uk

They can also be ordered by post: an order form is available on request.

Some of the pieces set in the syllabus include options that are published by commercial publishers. These may be obtained on-line at sites such as www.musicroom.com or in most good music shops.

Second hand and out of print music can be purchased on www.amazon.co.uk or www.ebay.co.uk. Certain out of copyright pieces may be obtained free of charge from www.imlsp.org

Demonstrations of many set works maybe found on www.youtube.com but please be aware that the quality of performance is variable.

MEDAL EXAMINATIONS

Successful candidates at medal examinations receive a certificate and a medal order form. Prices of medals are shown on the medal order form. Medals are supplied in boxes and are engraved with the candidate's name, subject of examination and the year. Medal awards do not entitle holders to put letters after their names.

MEDLEYS & OWN CHOICES

Where examination requirements include medleys or own choices, a second copy of the score must be provided for the examiner. At all levels, the examiners may penalise an option clearly chosen for its comparative ease.

ESSAYS, FOLIOS, ETC.

Where dissertations are required, these must be submitted with the entry form.

Separate or late submission is not permitted. Dissertations should be on plain white A4 paper, legibly written, typed or word processed. Do not bind the pages as they need to be scanned though a sheet feeder. All dissertations should contain a bibliography and contents page. For more guidance see Essay Writing for the Victoria College Teaching Diplomas published by LMP.

PHOTOCOPIES

All VCM and LMP publications are copyright. Photocopying of LMP publications is not permissible and candidates using unauthorised photocopies at examinations will be disqualified. It is acceptable, however, to use a photocopy for the second copy when the syllabus requires one to be handed to the examiner, provided the original is also brought to the examination. It is also acceptable to use photocopies of parts of long pieces to avoid awkward page turns, again provided the original is also brought to the examination.

EXEMPTION FROM QUESTIONS AT PRACTICAL EXAMINATIONS

Candidates who have passed certain VCM Theoretical Examinations are entitled to claim full marks for questions at Practical Examinations as follows:

VCM Grade 1 Theory exempts up to and including Preliminary Practical

VCM Grade 1A Theory exempts up to and including Grade 1 Practical

VCM Grade 2 Theory exempts up to and including Grade 3 and JBM Practical

VCM Grade 3 Theory exempts up to and including Grade 5 and JSM Practical

VCM Grade 4 Theory exempts up to and including Grade 7 and SM Practical

In all such cases the theory result or certificate must be produced for the Examiner at the beginning of the practical examination. Examiners do not take it amiss if reminded not to ask questions if they have been shown a qualifying Theory pass.

MEMORY

Performing from memory is not compulsory at any level. However, it is encouraged and will be rewarded.

At all grades it is possible to substitute one piece with a song (to be played and sung by the candidate) chosen from the Self-Accompanied Singing syllabus. Grades A-D are published by LMP in a special Self-Accompanied Singing Ukulele version.

EXAM SHEETS

Exam sheets entitled Uniquele for each Grade are published by London Music Press (LMP) the College's own in-house publisher.

They contain Scales, Exercises and Pieces listed in the syllabus other than those shown under the names of other publishers

CRAZY COMPOSING

Crazy Composing is a step by step guide for teachers and pupils wishing to perform an Own Composition in lieu of Musicianship Tests.

SPECIMEN MUSICIANSHIP TESTS

Specimen musicianship tests are available showing the type of tests examiners will set.

SPECIMEN SIGHT READING

Specimen Sight Reading tests are available showing the type of tests examiners will set.

PAST THEORY PAPERS

Sets of the last six available past Theory exam papers are available for each grade.

Ukulele Syllabus

This syllabus is designed to offer an exam to Ukulele players who wanted to develop melodic skills in addition to those of accompanying. To overcome the problem of the lack of music published for the Ukulele as a melody instrument I have developed new material on which this exam course is based and it is now available from VCM.

As a musical instrument the Ukulele is still something of a novelty item. Even in most music shops it is difficult to find a correctly tuned instrument (even though the brightly coloured ones do look good on the shelves) or a member of staff who understands it how to tune it. Sibelius, the music notation software, had a version in which the strings were upside down. Even Ukulele players do themselves no favours when they object to references to George Formby, even though he did play the Uke before going on to its banjo based cousin and he is the player most fondly and frequently thought of by the general public.

But on the positive side, the joy that the Ukulele is bringing to children (through wider opportunities teaching in primary schools) and adults up and down the country is on the increase and I hope this will add to that enjoyment as well as raising the status of the instrument. Playing techniques are as varied as the players themselves and although I have given advice in the notes to the pieces, do experiment for yourself and watch other players for ideas, and hopefully viewing Jake Shimabukuro on "Youtube" play "My Guitar Gently Weeps" will inspire rather than frighten you.

Tablature is the simplest way to show where the notes are on the instrument, and by combining it with standard notation, a fairly common practice for modern guitarists, you get the mixed system which I think is as clear and complete a guide to the music as is possible. All the music is arranged for the more common types of Ukulele (Soprano, Concert and Tenor) using GCEA tuning shown in the Tutorial

A short Ukulele tutorial

Ukulele History

In 1879, the Portuguese master craftsman and instrument maker Manuel Nunes arrived in the Hawaiian Islands with Joao Fernandes and Augustine Dias. They were immigrants who came to work in the sugar cane fields. Together they invented and developed the ukulele using the four string braguinha from Madeira as their model and the locals called the instrument the Ukulele, which roughly translates as Jumping Flea.

It was around 1915 that the ukulele's popularity migrated to the mainland and a Hawaiian music craze started in San Francisco. The first real star of the instrument in the US was Cliff Edwards. In 1917 in Chicago he took a job as a singer in the Arsonia Café going to tables and singing and playing the ukulele for tips. It was here that he started using the stage name Ukulele Ike. The pianist at the club wrote a song called La Da. Cliff became a sensation singing the song and he and Joe Frisco formed a successful vaudeville act. By the 20s, mainland manufacturers such as Gibson, Harmony, Regal, National, Dobro and Martin were mass-producing ukuleles by the thousands. Martin produced their first uke in 1916 based on the Nunes design.

In the 40s and 50s George Formby and the American Arthur Godfrey were the big stars whilst players like Roy Smeck and Eddie Karnaev were the virtuosi. The 60s had Tiny Tim as the novelty artiste and Hollywood films keep up a steady stream of ukulele appearances. In the 21st Century YouTube has spread the genius of Jake Shimabukuro and a few books with melody transcriptions are now available.

Medal Examinations in Ukulele Playing

Medal examinations offer candidates a performance-centred exam outside the constraints of the formal Grade structure. A higher pass mark (75%) is set and the result is either an award or no award. Successful candidates receive a certificate and report as with Grade exams, but also an application form to purchase a medal of good quality metal that can be engraved with the candidate's name, subject and the year. Medal exams do not qualify candidates for letters after their names.

Performance (90 marks)

Candidates must present a balanced programme of their own choice of five solos. The programme must show a range of styles. The standard of difficulty should be suitable for this level of examination. The whole performance should take no longer than 20 minutes.

Introductions

The standard expected is that of an amateur performance at a live local charity show. Candidates should be able to introduce their programmes as to a live audience in an interesting and entertaining manner. Examiners will expect to be treated as an audience and addressed accordingly.

Department

Examiners will take into account general presentation of the pieces and department. Examiners will expect candidates to dress as if they are performing in a formal recital. A confident professional approach is looked for. Credit will be given for effort in presentation, but not for the quality or sophistication of the resources available to the candidate.

Paperwork

The candidate should present the examiner with a concert programme. It should include:

- " A front cover showing the name of the candidate
- " A list of the pieces performed
- " Copies of the scores of the pieces performed (photocopies are permitted but will be destroyed after the examination)
- " A short summary about the pieces performed

Discussion (10 marks)

The examiner will hold a brief interview with the candidate about the performance, the candidate's preferences and knowledge of the instrument and repertoire.

Platinum Medal

Show on entry form as

SURNAME	FORENAMES	SUBJECT	GRADE

Candidates must present a balanced programme of their own choice of five pieces

The pieces should include the following:

- " An arrangement of a piece by a European Baroque composer
- " An arrangement of a piece by a British Baroque composer
- " A piece by a Classical Composer
- " An arrangement of a piece by an American composer
- " A piece composed post-1900

Introductions, Department and Paperwork

The requirements are as for Gold Medal above.

Discussion (10 marks)

The examiner will hold a brief interview with the candidate about the performance, the candidate's preferences and knowledge of the instrument and repertoire.
